

STEFAN LEGGE, PH.D.

Postdoctoral Researcher in Economics, Swiss Institute for International Economics and Applied Economic Research,
University of St.Gallen

Bodanstrasse 8, 9000 St.Gallen, Switzerland
stefan.legge@unisg.ch

Dr. Stefan Legge (German citizen, permanent Swiss resident) is a Postdoctoral Researcher in Economics at the Swiss Institute for International Economics and Applied Economic Research (SIAW-HSG) at the University of St.Gallen.

Furthermore, Stefan serves as a Fellow in the World Economic Forum Global Future Council, working on several projects concerning the future of consumption. This adds to his core fields of research which are international trade, macroeconomics, and political economics. At the University of St.Gallen, he has taught students in economics at both undergraduate and graduate level.

Stefan studied economics at the University of Mannheim (Germany) where he obtained a bachelor's degree in 2009. Subsequently, he received a master's and doctoral degree in economics from the University of St.Gallen in 2009 and 2016, respectively. During his graduate studies, he visited the University of California at San Diego (UCSD), the University of California at Berkeley, as well as Princeton University.

Stefan previously worked as an intern for BMW in Munich and as a research assistant at the SEW-HSG Institute in St.Gallen. For his research papers, he has won several national and international awards, including the Young Swiss Economist Award as well as the Prize for the Best Dissertation in Economics in St.Gallen in 2016. Stefan's research has been published in leading economics journals.